

The Right Hire: How to Ensure You Hire the Best People for Your Company

Every company has to recruit staff, and this indispensable resource provides those who interview and recruit with the methods and confidence to make the right appointment. Written by experts in the latest recruitment methodologies, the tools provided in this book focus on how to work up a short list that excludes applicants who attempt to deceive, exaggerate, or play fast and loose with the truth in curricula vitae, resumes, and interviews. The book also teaches how to think creatively about the recruitment process, showing how candidates can be assessed by their potential to learn and ability to adapt to the company.
