

Gladstone: Ireland and Beyond

This book examines aspects of Gladstones relationship with Ireland, setting this in the context of the United Kingdom and Empire. It is based on papers given at a conference, funded by the Department of the Taoiseach, at St Deniols Library in Hawarden (Gladstones home in North Wales), to mark the bicentenary of his birth. *** Some of the most pleasing essays...explore some of Gladstones personal qualities and how these informed the charisma that contemporaries (notably, Max Weber) ascribed to him. -- Victorian Studies, Vol. 57, No. 3, Spring 2015E?
