

Graduate Programs in the Humanities, Arts & Social Sciences: Nearly 10,000 Graduate Programs in 160 Disciplines (Petersons Graduate Programs in the Humanities, Arts & Social Sciences)

Searching for a graduate program in the arts and humanities? Petersons Graduate Programs in the Humanities, Arts & Social Sciences 2011 contains approximately 11,000 graduate programs of study in 163 disciplines-including the arts and architecture, communications and media, psychology and counseling, political science and international affairs, economics, and sociology, anthropology, and archaeology. Petersons six-volume Annual Guides to Graduate Study, the only annually updated reference work of its kind, provides wide-ranging information on the graduate and professional programs offered by U.S.-accredited colleges and universities in the United States, U.S. territories, Canada, Mexico, Europe, Asia, and Africa. Selling Points: Informative data profiles for nearly 11,000 graduate programs in 163 disciplines in the arts and humanities, including facts and figures on accreditation, degree requirements, application deadlines and contact information, financial support, faculty, and student body profiles. Two-page Close-Ups, written by featured institutions, offer complete details on the specific graduate programs, schools, or departments as well as information on faculty research and the college or university. Expert advice on the admissions process, financial support, and accrediting agencies. Comprehensive directories list programs in this volume, as well as others in the graduate series. Up-to-date appendixes list institutional changes since the last edition along with abbreviations used in the guide.
