

Building Attraction

(Updated version Nov 11, 2013) Hers has been a life of too many responsibilities and his has been a life of too few. Could the thing that initially repelled them from each other finally be the ultimate source of attraction? Holly Adams has two jobs in the city, two petulant teenage sisters to support, a farm with a big mortgage and a terrible secret that propels her forward. Brad Winchester has a reputation for being a spoilt playboy who has abandoned his family business but he also has a secret that has finally brought him home. When they are forced to together at work (Holly works at the cut-throat PR Consultancy that handles his familys account Winchester Homes They dont build homes, they build dreams) a series of misunderstandings has them at odds. Still while working together they learn they have more in common than either might have imagined common friends, family loyalty and dreams of something different. When life keeps pushing them in each others paths they must decide whether this is an attraction that might be worth building on after all.
