

Pervert: Life on the List

Nearly 41% of all Americans have been arrested, finger printed, and have mugshots. Tens of thousands of new civil infractions put in place, not by law makers, but by the same lower level officials that enforce them. The United States has 400 times more people in prison than the next democratic nation. Why does the Land of the Free continually take away the liberty of the people... because most people, including many in congress, don't know it is happening. The result is a legal system based upon profit and political gain. Pervert follows the arrest, trial, sentencing, and placement on the Sex Offender Registry of the author. It contrasts the current laws and the hysteria behind them, with the factual information about sex offenders. The result shows a complete detachment from reality in the punishment of said offenders, at a cost of safety to the community.
