

Intuition and the Mystical Life

What if you could live your life in partnership with divinity, using intuition as your guide? According to Clarissa Pinkola Estes, Ph.D., and Caroline Myss such a life is possible. In fact, it has been the life that mystics have chosen throughout history, and only one thing is required: the willingness to completely surrender to divine instruction. Now Caroline Myss and Dr. Estestwo of the countrys leading intuitives and bestselling authors are together for the first time on audio with Intuition and the Mystical Life, where listeners join them to explore: the difference between instinct and intuition: when to use each of these powerful decision-making tools, spiritual emergencies using the power of prayer for empowerment, during these initiations into the next level of divine awakening, new ways to face the challenges of lifes cyclical transitions, and much more.
