

Jennie Lee: A Life

First published in 1997, Patricia Holliss biography of the pioneering Labour MP Jennie Lee (1904-1988) won both the Wolfson History Prize and the Orwell Prize. It is the definitive study of this remarkable woman, her stormy political career, and her marriage to Aneurin Bevan. In a new preface to this edition Holliss adds insights into Lees life which emerged subsequent to first publication, and also draws on her own experience as a Labour Minister from 1997-2005. Lees lives and loves, passions and drives are beautifully and frankly explored in Patricia Holliss compelling book. THESSuperbly researched, engrossingly written, scrupulously honest. Gerald Kaufman, Daily TelegraphWhat makes it particularly fascinating is the authors own first-hand knowledge of politics and of the Labour movement. TLSOne of the best political biographies of recent years Alan Watkins, New Statesman
