

John James Audubons Birds of America 2010 Calendar

This calendar celebrates the art of John James Audubon, the preeminent wildlife artist of the 19th century with twelve beautifully reproduced paintings from his seminal work Birds of America. From a majestic Golden Eagle to the Wood Duck, from a pair of nesting Willow Ptarmigan to the now-extinct Passenger Pigeon, these portraits are unmatched in their meticulous and true-to-life detail, artistic flair, and attention to habitat and behavior. The oversized 12 x 14 format is a perfect showcase for the art, and a center spread discusses the life of John James Audubon and the included images.
