

2014-2015. Lunisolar calendar health (Russian Edition)

Of all the planets of the solar system the most powerful influence on human health have the sun and moon. When we say that a person born under a certain sign of the zodiac, we mean that in this sign at the time was the sun. Our dependence on space (and first of all solar and lunar) rhythms can be calculated - and the book you hold in your hands, can help you in this. Given the cosmic rhythms of everyday life, you will save a lot of trouble and be able to restore their health. Through this book, you'll be in the next two years to provide practical recommendations based on the knowledge of one of the oldest sciences - astrology. Lunisolar calendar year health 2014-2015 compiled Ph.D., a member of the Union of Professional Astrologers Anatoly Fesechko.
