

Last Call at Elaines: A Journey From One Side Of the Bar to the Other

Set in one of the great literary saloons of any generation, McDonalds story expertly weaves his relationship with New York icon, Elaine Kaufman, his struggle to stay clean, and his wild-eyed dreams of becoming a writer. this story is as compelling as the stories of the writers who made Elaines their home away from home. --Susan Cheever Brian McDonald has a sharp eye and even a sharper ear for New York after dark. --Frank McCourt
