

The Botanical Garden 2007

Roger Phillips and Martyn Rix are internationally renowned photographers whose gardening books have earned acclaim for their remarkable beauty, exquisite detail and innovative presentation. In The Botanical Garden 2007, Phillips and Rix offer a unique collection of the images that have made them pioneers in their field. This magnificent calendar allows gardeners and plant lovers to appreciate even common varieties in unexpected ways. Each month provides an intimate look at every aspect of a different plant -- from root to blossom. The photographs are reproduced in true-to-life color, inviting you to step into a botanical garden like no other.
