

Sex... According to God

My friend, we live in a culture saturated with sex. Everywhere you turn its therediscussed, debated, demonstrated, and used to sell anything and everything from cars to shampoo. And the worlds message is loud and clear: You have to be desirable, attractive, and sexy in order to be loved. But I know far too many people who have been burned by sexnot only as children but as teens and adultssimply because it wasnt sex according to Gods directions. And that breaks my heartand His. Our problem today is that Christians havent studied the subject of sex in the Bible. Thats why I am so excited about this book. Here is the truth about sexsex according to God, the one who created it. You and I are going to discover all that God has to say about sex in the Old and New Testaments. You are going to have answers to your questions about sex and solutions to your problems with sex. Together, were going to learn for ourselves what the Creator has to say about His creation. Youll encounter truths that will enable you to enjoy and experience all that God intends in the incredible experience of becoming one flesh physically with your husband or wife. And youre going to know how to conduct yourself until you get married, or if you never marry. You are going to learn so much, my friend, that God is going to use you in a significant way to help others in these difficult days. This could be the most powerful, most liberating study youve ever undertaken.--Kay Arthur
